ANNOUNCEMENT OF ELECTION RESULTS

10 June 2025

Position of President-Elect

On behalf of the SATS Executive Committee and Election Committee, we are pleased to announce the outcome of the recent election for the position of President-Elect.

After a thorough and transparent election process, and with the participation of our valued members, we are delighted to declare that Dr Sharan Rambarran has been elected as the next President-Elect of SATS.

We extend our warmest congratulations to Dr Sharan Rambarran on this well-deserved appointment. We are confident that their leadership, vision, and dedication will greatly contribute to the continued growth and success of SATS.

We also wish to sincerely thank all the candidates who stood for election and all members who took part in the voting process. Your engagement is vital to the strength of our Society.

We look forward to working closely with Dr Sharan Rambarran as they prepare to assume this important role.

Warm regards,

South African Transplant Society (SATS)
